

Professional Opticians of Florida

Code of Ethics

As a member of the Professional Opticians of Florida, I pledge myself to:

- Maintain the highest level of integrity and professionalism, thereby, protecting the consumer and the profession of Opticianry
- Supply the finest quality optical products and services.
- Participate in the advancement of the profession through contributions to practice, education, administration, and knowledge development.
- Refuse to engage or participate in unethical practices or activities.
- Promote, advocate for, and strive to protect the health and safety of the consumer / patient
- Disclose to any relevant party any perceived or actual conflicts of interest.
- Obtain the Association's Board of Directors approval for all activities in the name of the Association.
- Uphold all bylaws and regulations relating to the Association's policies, and procedures in order to enforce them.